

A Smithy Studio Workshop

PAINT A CANVAS

Have you ever looked at a painting in a gallery and thought, "I could do that if only....."

Have you ever thought you would like a go at doing a painting but shuddered at the array of materials and the mess it could make of your home?

Well now you can! So bring out your inner artist in a courtyard studio workshop at the Smithy, Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire.

All materials and guidance are provided along with a delicious lunch to make a real treat of a creative experience. A maximum of four people per workshop, it is a great way to share a creative experience with a friend. All you need to bring are a few of your own photos and reminders of a favourite place, old clothes andan open mind. The workshop, using mainly acrylics can inspire artists of all levels!

Prices are from £95 for a day to include all materials and lunch and for two days £250 to include all materials, lunches and one nights accommodation in a double room with private sitting room and modern wet room and breakfast.
